Synopsis

In this enchanting children's book, young Amina embarks on a remarkable journey of discovery and wonder. Guided by the verses of the Holy Quran, she explores the marvels of creation, from the intricate details of nature to the vast expanse of the universe.

Through Amina's curious eyes, children will witness the beauty of Allah's creations: the vibrant colors of flowers, the gentle rustling of leaves, the majestic flight of birds, and the awe-inspiring power of storms. Each observation becomes a testament to Allah's boundless wisdom and the interconnectedness of all things.

As Amina delves deeper into her exploration, she encounters various creatures that share their unique perspectives on the world. A wise old owl teaches her the importance of seeking knowledge and understanding. A playful butterfly reminds her of the joy and freedom found in Allah's creation.
