A Chronicle of Spiritual Masters

Spanning six revered Sikh Gurus, this volume chronicles their lives, teachings, and profound impact on the Sikh community. From Guru Hargobind's valiant defense of the faith to Guru Har Krishan's miraculous healing abilities, each Guru left an enduring mark on the Sikh psyche.

- Guru Hargobind: The Sixth Guru, known for his warrior spirit, established the concept of Miri-Piri (temporal and spiritual power).
- Guru Har Rai: The Seventh Guru, renowned for his humility and compassion, spread the message of love and unity.
- Guru Har Krishan: The Eighth Guru, revered for his divine powers, emphasized the importance of service.

- Guru Tegh Bahadur: The Ninth Guru, known as the "Protector of Dharma," sacrificed his life to uphold religious freedom.
- Guru Gobind Singh: The Tenth and last Guru, founded the Khalsa, the Sikh warrior community, and introduced the Five K's.

A tapestry of Wisdom and Sacrifice

Through the lens of these extraordinary Gurus, you will witness the evolution of Sikhism as it grappled with political challenges, social inequalities, and religious persecution. Their unwavering faith, unwavering courage, and profound teachings continue to inspire millions today.
