

My Salaat ul Eshaa for Little Learners: A Comprehensive Guide to the Night Prayer

In the realm of Islamic education, it is imperative for young learners to develop a sound understanding of the fundamental pillars of Islam, including the five daily prayers. Salaat ul Eshaa, the night prayer, holds significant importance within these obligatory acts of worship. My Salaat ul Eshaa for Little Learners has been meticulously crafted to provide a comprehensive and engaging guide for young Muslims eager to embark on their spiritual journey and establish a meaningful connection with their faith.

A Journey into the Night Prayer My Salaat ul Eshaa for Little Learners takes young readers on an immersive journey into the world of Salaat ul Eshaa. Through vibrant illustrations and age-appropriate language, the book introduces the concept of prayer as a form of communication with Allah (SWT). Children will learn about the importance of purity and the proper way to perform wudu (ablution) before offering their prayers.

Exploring the Steps of Salaat The book meticulously breaks down each step of Salaat ul Eshaa, making it easy for young learners to follow and understand. With clear instructions and step-by-step guidance, children will develop the necessary skills to perform the prayer in the correct manner, fostering a sense of accomplishment and confidence.

The Heart of the Matter: Intentions and Supplications Beyond the physical act of prayer, My Salaat ul Eshaa for Little Learners emphasizes the importance of having the right intentions and uttering the correct supplications. Children will discover how to connect their hearts with Allah (SWT) and express their gratitude, seeking His guidance and mercy. Through beautiful dua (supplications), they will learn to ask for forgiveness, blessings, and protection.

The Power of Dua: Making Personal Connections The book dedicates a special section to the significance of dua, encouraging young learners to develop a personal relationship with Allah (SWT) through heartfelt supplications. Children will find guidance on making their own duas, expressing their unique thoughts and feelings to their Creator. This section fosters a sense of closeness and intimacy, empowering children to connect with their faith on a deeper level.
