

Unleash the Power of Spoken Creation: "Whatsoever Was Created By Words Will Hear Respond To Words"

Words possess an extraordinary power beyond their mere meaning. They have the ability to create, shape, and alter reality. In his groundbreaking book, "Whatsoever Was Created By Words Will Hear Respond To Words," Dr. Ernest Holmes unlocks the profound connection between words and the universe.

The ancient wisdom traditions have long recognized the significance of words as the architects of existence. From the biblical account of God speaking the world into being to the incantations of ancient mystics, words have played a pivotal role in the manifestation of all that is.

Dr. Holmes builds upon this understanding, proposing that the universe itself is a manifestation of the spoken word. Every atom, molecule, and living organism has its origin in the power of sound and vibration.
